The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for the allowance of claim 21 for the reasons set forth at page 15 of the BPAI decision mailed 10/25/06. In particular, although the closest prior art (Gombrich) teaches recording information from an authorized user in conjunction with the administration of drugs, Gombrich does not teach dispensing the drugs responsive to a determination that the user is an authorized user and responsive to reading machine readable indicia on a report.
